News Release

Plaza Premium Lounge Welcomes UnionPay International Cardholders to Its Lounges Globally
Selected cardholders will be able to gain access to Plaza Premium Lounge's global network along with special welcome offers

(Hong Kong, 27 October 2022) From now until 14 October 2023, UnionPay International cardholders will be able to enjoy complimentary access to Plaza Premium Lounges & its affiliated lounges across its global network.

To welcome UnionPay International cardholders, Plaza Premium Lounge will be delighting guests with a special welcome drink and 30% off lounge access for one companion. UnionPay International cardholders can enjoy these welcome offers at Plaza Premium Lounges in China (Hong Kong, Macau, Beijing, Guangzhou, Qingdao, Taipei), Singapore, Malaysia (Kuala Lumpur, Langkawi, Penang, Kuching), Indonesia (Jakarta), and the Philippines (Cebu, Clark), from now until 14 October 2023.

“We are excited to welcome UnionPay International cardholders to both our Plaza Premium Lounges, and our affiliated lounges worldwide. UnionPay understands the travel needs of their premium cardholders and together with Plaza Premium Group, we provide these discerning cardholders with a space to relax and unwind during their travels. As the world’s largest independent airport lounge operator, we look forward to providing UnionPay cardholders with high quality and consistent services at major international airports,” said Becky Lim, Managing Director, Commercial of Plaza Premium Group.

UnionPay International added that it has always been committed to providing better payment experience and benefits services for UnionPay cardholders around the world.

The company is pleased to provide lounge access at Plaza Premium Lounges worldwide to its premium cardholders, and it hopes to enable its cardholders to have an exclusive and comfortable travel experience.
